Wonders of Nature in Accordance with the Blessings of Allah Almighty

CREATION OF UNIVERSE

The Quran and modern science offer perspectives that together create a beautiful, awe-inspiring picture of how everything came into being. According to Islamic teachings, the universe's creation was an act of Divine Will and Power.

The Quran describes in various verses the origin of the universe, the creation of life, and the laws that govern all creation. This wonder was initiated by Allah's command: "Be!" (Kun! Fa Yakun!).

CYCLE OF LIFE IN UNIVERSE

VASTNESS OF UNIVERSE

In the Quran, the sun is described as a blessing from Allah, providing light, warmth, and nourishment for all living things. The moon, on the other hand, is closely tied to the Islamic calendar, which is based on the lunar cycle. The moon's phases are also seen as a reminder of the cyclical nature of life.

QURANI VERSES

"And He has made subject to you the sun and the moon, both diligently pursuing their courses; and the night and the day He has made subject to you."

1. Sustain life: The sun's energy and the moon's gravitational pull are essential for maintaining life on Earth.
2. Provide guidance: The sun and moon serve as natural navigational aids, helping humans to orient themselves.

OCEAN'S AND RIVER'S DEPTH

In Islam, rivers and oceans are indeed considered a blessing from Allah, and their importance is emphasized in the Quran.

1. Source of Freshwater: Rivers provide freshwater, essential for human consumption, agriculture, and industry.
2. Food Security: Oceans and rivers are a vital source of food, providing fish, shellfish, and other seafood.
3. Transportation and Trade: Rivers and oceans have facilitated transportation and trade throughout history.

QURANI VERSES:

“And we have made the water for all living things”

DISTRIBUTION OF WATER:

Oceans, seas consist of 96.4% water. Ice caps, glaciers and permanent snow consist of 1.4% water. Groundwater consists of 1.7%. Atmosphere consist of 0.04% water. Lakes, rivers, and wetlands consist of 0.3% water.

BEAUTY OF FAUNA AND FLORA

FAUNA:

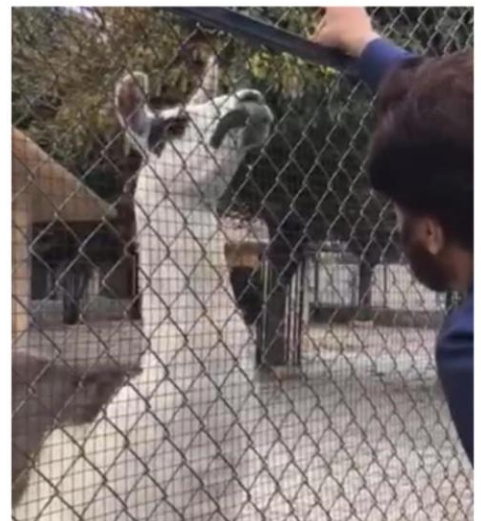

Animals are a magnificent creation and a profound blessing from Allah. They are not only integral to our survival but also a source of beauty, inspiration, and countless lessons in life. Allah highlights the significance of animals in the Qur'an, reminding us of their role and our responsibility towards them

Quranic Verses on Animals:

And He created the cattle for you;
you have in them warm

clothing and (many) benefits, and of them you eat."

Fact: Camels can survive for weeks without water their humps that store fat for energy.

FLORA:

Plants are one of the most evident signs of Allah's infinite wisdom and mercy. From their ability to grow from tiny seeds to their provision of sustenance, oxygen, and beauty, plants reflect the divine artistry of their Creator.

"And We sent down blessed rain from the sky and made grow thereby gardens and grain from the harvest, and lofty palm trees with fruit arranged in layers."

Interesting Fact: Each raindrop contains microscopic nutrients that help plants grow. Rainwater also contains nitrogen from the atmosphere, a natural fertilizer that enriches the soil

"And He it is who spread the earth and placed therein firmly set mountains and rivers, and of all fruits He made therein two mates; He causes the night to cover the day. Indeed, in that are signs for a people who give thought."
(Surah Ar-Ra'd, 13:3)

Interesting facts:

- Bananas, apples, and mangoes all share one common feature—they evolved in different regions, but their unique sweetness caters to human taste buds, showing Allah's intricate design.

The Tree of Life:

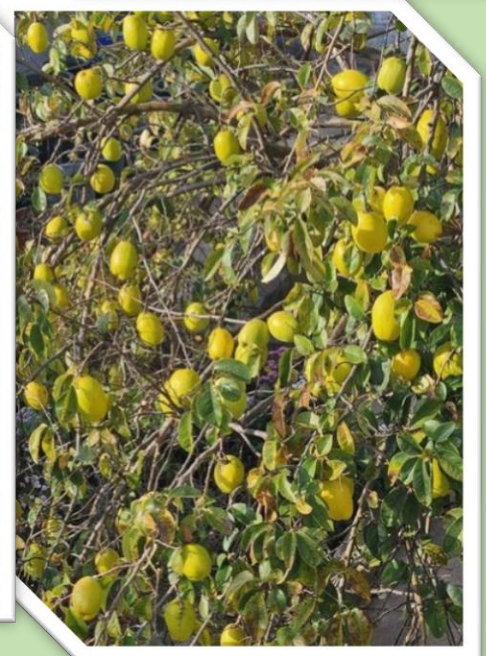

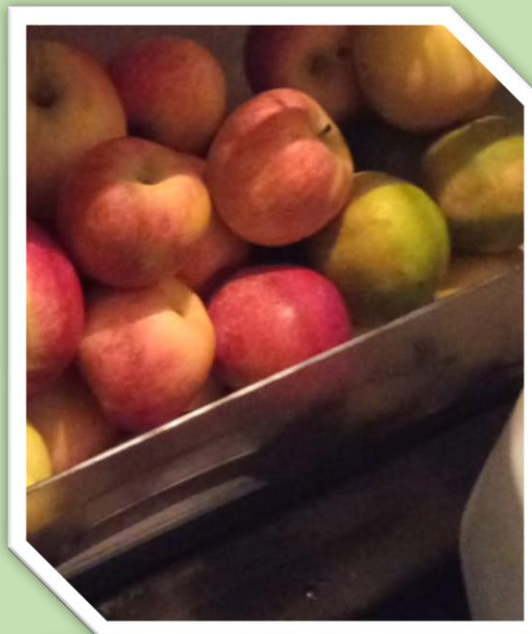

The olive tree is mentioned numerous times in the Quran as a symbol of peace, nourishment, and strength.

The Beauty of Flowers:

Flowers, with their delicate fragrances and vibrant colors, are often mentioned in the Quran as symbols of beauty and divine blessing.

Medicinal Plants:

Many plants have healing properties, reflecting Allah's mercy in providing us with natural remedies for health wellbeing.

The Life Cycle Of Life

Human Life Cycle :

The human life cycle mirrors the wonders of nature, both created by Allah in a seamless, cyclical flow. From the humble beginnings of birth, akin to seeds sprouting in the earth, to the growth of childhood, which parallels nature's blossoming, each stage of life reflects the nurturing power of the Creator.

Surah As-Sajdah (32:7)

“Who made everything he has created in the best way and he began the creation of man

Childhood: The Foundation of Innocence

During childhood, a human is nurtured in purity and innocence. In the Quran, Allah emphasizes the importance of treating children with kindness and compassion:

“And lower to them the wing of humility out of mercy and say, ‘My Lord, have mercy upon them as they brought me up [when I was] small.’” (Quran 17:24)

Adulthood: The Fulfillment of Purpose

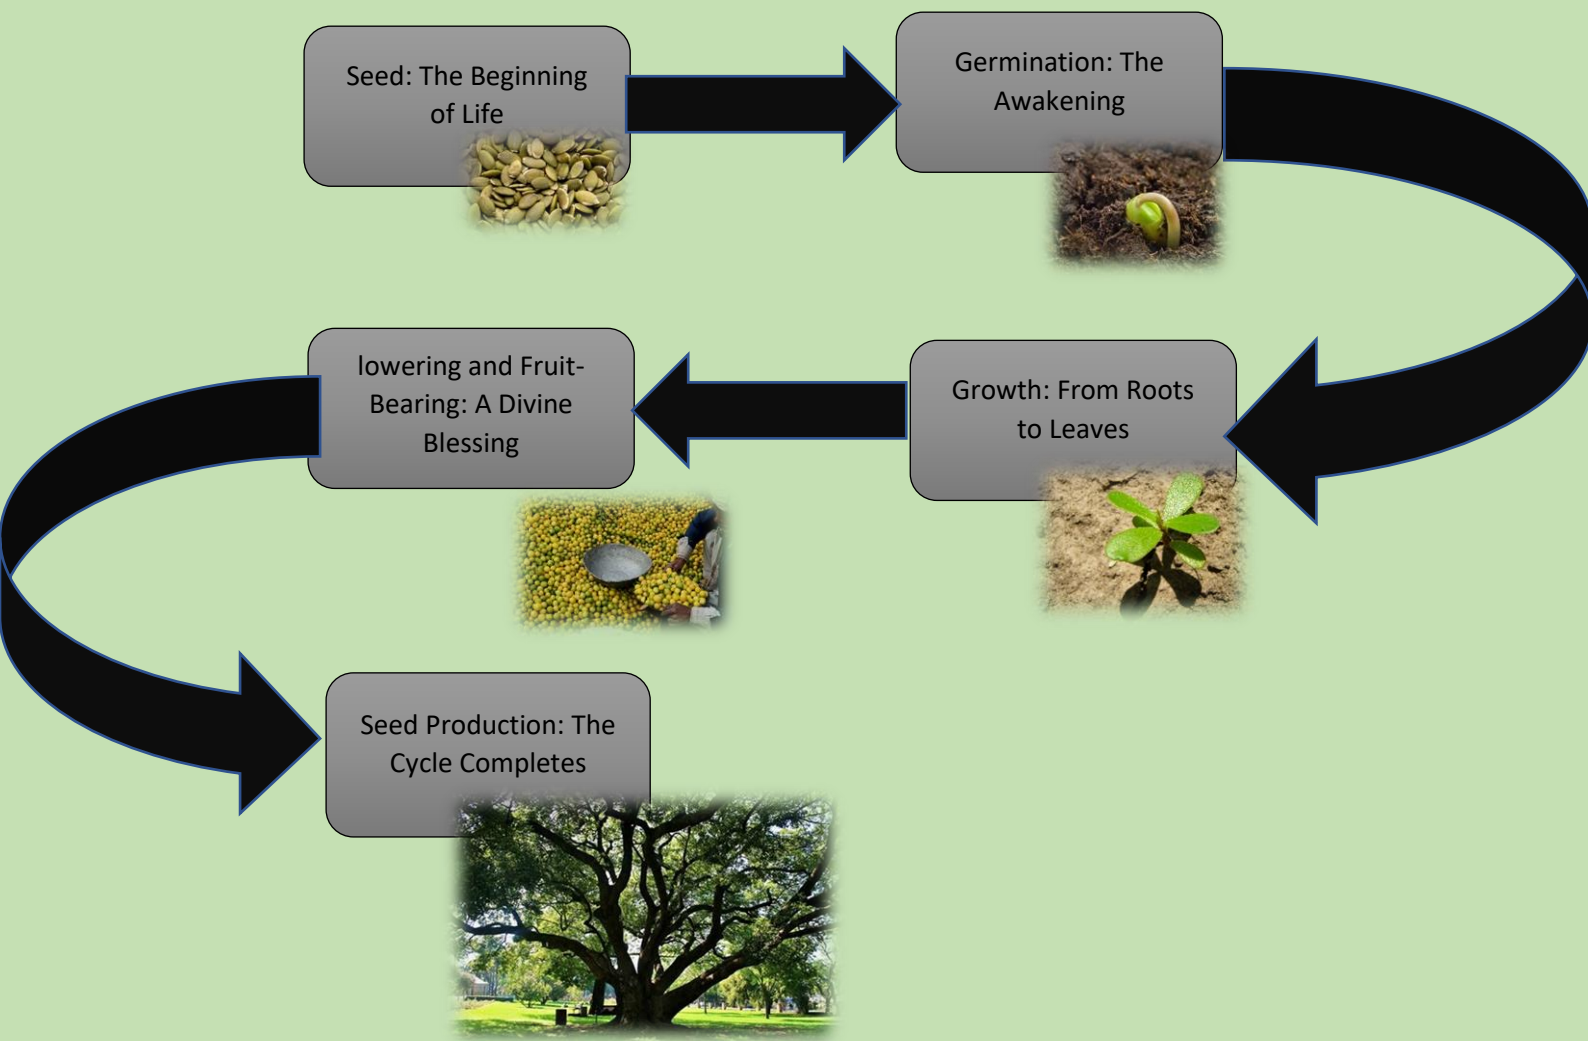

In adulthood, we are entrusted with responsibilities, not just for ourselves but for others as well. Allah speaks of the importance of maturity and fulfilling one's duties.

The Miraculous Life Cycle of Plants:

The life cycle of a plant, from seed to soul, is a divine reflection of Creator's wisdom and mercy. Each stage of growth and renewal is a reminder of Allah's meticulous planning and care. As we observe the beauty and functions of plants in our environment, let us remember the divine order they represent and give thanks to Allah for His endless blessings.

Reflection: What Can We Learn from the Plant Life Cycle?

The plant life cycle teaches us valuable lessons in patience, growth, and renewal. Just as a plant grows from a seed, nourished by Allah's grace, so too must we nurture our faith and actions, trusting in Allah's guidance.

- Patience: Just as plants take time to grow, so too does spiritual growth require patience and faith.
- Gratitude: Each fruit and flower is a gift from Allah, a reminder of His mercy.
- Interdependence: The life of a plant is interdependent with its environment, teaching us the importance of harmony and balance in all aspects of life.

Healing Power of Nature

The healing power of nature is a divine gift that reflects Allah's infinite wisdom and mercy. Through the wonders of plants, herbs, water, air, and sunlight, nature offers remedies for both the body and soul.

The sunrise marks the start of a new day, bringing light, warmth, and energy.

Surah An-Naba
(78:13):

"And We made the sun
as a shining lamp."

Surah Al-An'am (6:96):

It is He who made the night for you to rest in and the day to see. Indeed, in that are signs for a people listen."

“Role of Nature in Islamic Teaching”

The Nature plays a significant role in the spiritual and moral development of humans. The Quran and Hadith shows the importance of appreciating, preserving, and living in harmony with the natural world.

Quranic Insights

1. Trustees of the Earth:

"It is He who has appointed you as successors on Earth."

(Quran 6:165)

Humans are entrusted with the responsibility of caring for the earth and its resources.

2. Signs of Allah:

"We will show them Our signs in the universe and in themselves until it becomes clear to them that it is true."

(Quran 41:53)

Nature is filled with signs (ayats) of Allah's existence, wisdom, and power.

3. Balance and Harmony:

"And we have ordained a measure for everything."

(Quran 54:49)

The Quran emphasizes the importance of maintaining balance and harmony in nature.

Hadith Insights:

1. Environmental Stewardship:

"The earth has been created for me as a mosque and as a means of purification."

2. Conservation of Resources:

"Do not waste water, even if you are by a flowing river."

Preserving ALLAH creation :

A Responsibility of Mankind

A Call for Responsibility:

The beauty and blessings of nature also comes with responsibility. As caretakers of Earth, we are entrusted to protect and preserve its delicate balance. This responsibility is a remainder of trust ALLAH has placed in us

“It is HE who’s has made you successors upon the earth.”

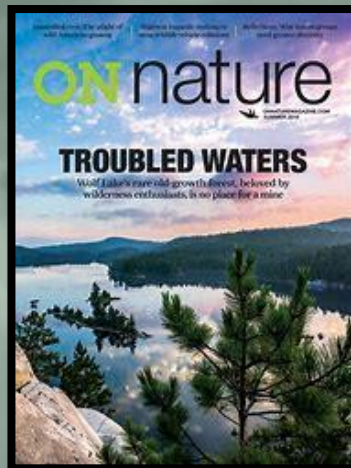

(Surah Al-Anam 6:165)

Protecting the environment is both a duty and an act of worship. By honoring this trust, we show gratitude for Allah’s blessings and ensure a better future for all.
